Song 6 My eyes are weary

Psalm 119:81-88 (Kaph) – Weary eyes, soul thirsting for salvation, afflicted by enemies, yet faithful to God's word. Pleads for revival and justice.

My eyes are weary, they fail and grow dim
Yet I wait for Your word, O Lord, to comfort me
When will You come and bring relief to me?
My soul longs for Your salvation desperately

I have become like a wineskin in the smoke
How long, O Lord, before You judge those who broke
Your law I have not forgotten, though they mock
Your commandments are true, I stand on the Rock

My eyes are weary, they fail and grow dim
Yet I wait for Your word, O Lord, to comfort me

The proud have dug pits and laid traps for me
Yet I will not turn from Your pure decrees
In Your mercy revive me and make me live
That I may keep the testimony You give

My eyes are weary, yet I look to You
My soul thirsts for Your salvation, ever true
